PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The week of September 23-27 is proclaimed to be PRIDE week in the Basehor Community.

WHEREAS: The week of September 23rd marks the second anniversary of the organization of the organization of the Basehor Community PRIDE Committee.

WHEREAS: The PRIDE organization has worked together with many individuals and many organizations, including the City of Basehor, to achieve numerous accomplishments and goals in the greater Basehor Community.

WHEREAS: The team of PRIDE judges will be in Basehor at 3:30 p.m. on September 23rd to evaluate the work and accomplishments of the Community PRIDE organization in order to rate Basehor with other Kansas communities in the population category of 1001 to 4000.

WHEREAS: The City of Basehor is grateful for the beautification, city-wide cleanup and landscaping around city hall accomplishment by the PRIDE organization and the volunteer efforts of numerous citizens of the Basehor community.

WHEREAS: The City of Basehor is appreciative of the Basehor Educational Environmental Site (BEES). Planned and constructed by the Basehor Jaycees, PRIDE, Basehor Elementary teachers and students and other community volunteers at no cost to the City or taxpayers.

Signed by:

Bryce D. Bettin

Bryce D. Bettin,
Mayor of Basehor