The City of Basehor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, national days of prayer have been a part of our country's heritage since the first one was declared by the Continental Congress in 1775; and

WHEREAS, leaders of our nation have relied upon the power of prayer throughout American history; and

WHEREAS, May 6, 1993, will mark the 41st consecutive observance of the National Day of Prayer, as mandated by both houses of Congress and by our President in Public Law 100-307; and

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer on May 6th will include a community rally from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. at Evangel Temple, at 1414 E. 103rd Street; and

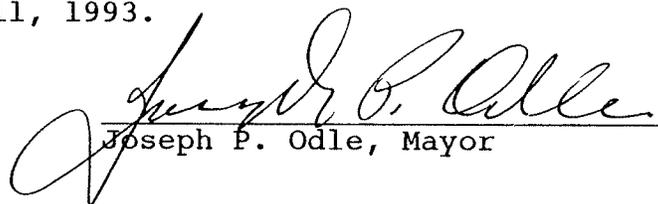

WHEREAS, it is good that we acknowledge that we are all God's handiwork and that it is appropriate and necessary for us as individuals, as a city, and as a nation to call upon Him in prayer:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Joseph P. Odle, Mayor of the City of Basehor, Kansas do hereby proclaim May 6th, 1993 as in the City of Basehor and urge all citizens to join on that day in homes, workplaces, and places of worship to pray together for the unity of the hearts of all mankind, and to continue in prayer for our city and our Nation.

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

Done this 1st day of April, 1993.

Dear Mary Ann,

Enclosed is the National Day of Prayer Proclamation which I recently talked to you about by phone.

Thanks so much for seeing that the Mayor signs and returns it to us by FRIDAY, APRIL 23rd.

All Proclamations from the Greater Kansas City area Mayors will be displayed at National Day of Prayer May 6th.

Again, thank you for your courtesies extended.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Chamblin

Dear Mayor,

Our President issues a proclamation each year calling America to a National Day of Prayer. Our local observance this year will be on May 6th, 7:00 P.M., at Evangel Temple located at 1414 E. 103rd Street, Kansas City, MO. We hope you will be able to respond to our President's call and be with us that evening.

We are enclosing the text for this year's proclamation for the mayors of our area and a couple of copies of past proclamations to help assist your secretary. We would appreciate having this returned to us by Friday, April 23rd.

There will be Clergy and congregations from all the major branches of the Body of Christ participating that night. We want to thank you in advance for joining our President in calling your city to prayer.

Hope to see you on May 6th, 1993, at 7:00 P.M.

Sincerely,

Marilyn G. Griffin, Director
