The City of Basehor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, national days of prayer have been a part of our country's heritage since the first one was declared by the Continental Congress in 1775; and

WHEREAS, leaders of our nation have relied upon the power of prayer throughout American history; and

WHEREAS, May 5, 1994, will mark the 42nd consecutive observance of the National Day of Prayer, as mandated by both houses of Congress and by our President in Public Law 100-307; and

WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer on May 5th will include a community rally from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. at Colonial Presbyterian Church, located at 95th & Wornall Road, Kansas City, Missouri; and

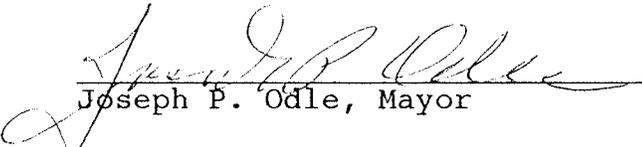

WHEREAS, it is good that we acknowledge that we are all God's handiwork and that it is appropriate and necessary for us as individuals, as a city, and as a nation to call upon Him in prayer:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Joseph P. Odle, Mayor of the City of Basehor, Kansas do hereby proclaim May 5th, 1994 as in the City of Basehor and urge all citizens to join on that day in homes, workplaces, and places of worship to pray together for the unity of the hearts of all mankind, and to continue in prayer for our City and our Nation.

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

Done this 14th day of February, 1994.

Joseph P. Odle, Mayor

Ministries of New Life

Dear Mary Ann,

Enclosed is the National Day of Prayer Proclamation.

Thanks so much for seeing that the Mayor signs and returns it to us by Friday, April 22nd.

All Proclamations from the Greater Kansas City area Mayors will be displayed at National Day of Prayer May 5th.

Again, thank you for your courtesies extended.

Sincerely,

Margaret Wichman

Dear Mayor,

Our President issues a proclamation each year calling America to a National Day of Prayer. Our local observation this year will be Thursday, May 5th, 7:00 P.M. at Colonial Presbyterian Church located at 95th & Wornall Road, Kansas City, MO. We hope you will be able to respond to our President's call and be with us that evening.

We are enclosing the text for this year's proclamation for the mayors of our area and a copy of a past proclamation from 1993 to help assist your secretary. It would be so encouraging for citizens of your city to come the evening of May 5th, and see a proclamation representing their city's support to set time aside to pray for the city, nation, and the world.

We would appreciate having this returned to our office by Friday, April 22nd.

There will be clergy and congregations from all the major branches of the Body of Christ participating on the evening of May 5th. We want to thank you in advance for joining our President in calling your city to prayer.

If you can be with us on Thursday, May 5th, at 7:00 P.M. at Colonial Presbyterian Church, we would appreciate knowing in advance so we can reserve you a seat and acknowledge your presence that evening.

Sincerely,

Marilyn G. Griffin, Director
Ministries of New Life
