The City of Basehor

PROCLAMATION

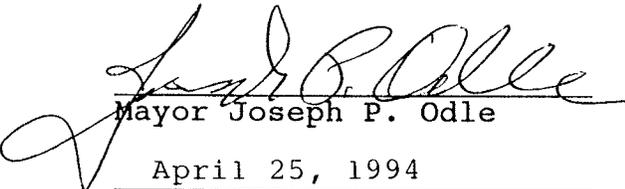

In a proclamation signed April 25, 1994, Mayor Odle and Charles Wilderson of the Basehor Chamber of Commerce announce that the week of May 1-7, 1994 will be observed as Basehor Appreciation Week.

WHEREAS, Mayor Joe Odle made the announcement following Governor Finney's proclamation declaring Business Appreciation Week throughout Kansas. The Governor has urged all Kansas Communities to honor local businesses in their areas.

WHEREAS, "The theme 'Think Business ... Thank Business' reflects the importance of expressing appreciation for business environment for Kansas down the road," said Finney. "We need to show members of the business Community we support them and appreciation them and will continue to do so."

WHEREAS, Citing the importance of businesses in Basehor Mayor Joe Odle stated, "Businesses in Basehor do more than just sell a product or service. They employ our citizens, support our schools, attend our churches, and contribute to our causes. Our local businesses are indeed a vital contributor to the quality of life the people of Basehor enjoy today. They serve our support."

WHEREAS, Businesses in the Basehor area will be visited and recognized by representatives of Leavenworth Area Development for their contribution to Leavenworth County's economy.

Mayor Joseph P. Odle
